

Society for American Baseball Research
Halsey Hall Chapter
Board Meeting - Oct. 6th, 1991
Stew Thornley's Apartment

Present: Rekela, O'Connell, Luloff, Arpi, Wyman, Leachman,
Hathaway, Thornley

Meeting began at 6:15pm .

Secretary/Treasurer's report was given (chapter assets).

Minutes of the Aug. 11th mtg were approved.

Membership Committee - Arpi

Arpi reports that Nat'l SABR gave 3 names of new local members to HHC. We will contact them about the HHC. Thornley suggested preparing a letter and sample newsletter to go out to new members. Thornley will get new membership directory by Nov. 2nd mtg. Arpi will work on contacting new renewing members - Hathaway will get him a list. Action was approved.

Publicity - Leachman

Leachman sent a notice to the Nat'l about our fall regional. Leachman was interviewed about SABR on KNXR - Rochester on Thurs, Oct. 3rd. O'Connell found out that Gene Harrington of KFAN is interested in interviewing members who know about baseball from the 30's and 40's. O'Connell will contact some possibilities. Show is broadcast on Sundays at 10AM.

TV Show - Thornley

Thornley reports that our local cable show has been successful and will continue. Video taped recordings will be available to interested members who don't get cable. Interested members should contact Dan Levitt.

Events - Wyman

Announcement will go out in Oct. and Nov. newsletter for Nov.'s regional. A second mailing for membership renewals was recommended. Action was approved.

Leo Wells (played for the Saints and White Sox in the late 40's and early 50's) will be at the Nov. regional. Thornley is trying to get Julio Becquer. O'Connell will contact Tom Mee.

Newsletter - Rekela

Next issue is coming out this week.

Old Business

Rekela proposed awarding Thornley for his book, Holy Cow. This brought up the issue of a research award. Arpi headed the committee to research this. Nothing has been done. Leachman suggested guidelines be developed. Wyman suggested we attempt to recruit a committee to meet with the board to develop this award at the next regional.
