A flyer with information about the match at Murphy's Landing versus the St. Paul Saints is also available.
First matches are May 17 and May 18 at Murphy's Landing.
Gregg Richardson is our new umpire. Former umpire Dana X. Marshall has moved to Las Vegas.
7. Publicity Report: Stew Thornley
None.
8. Newsletter Report: George Rekela
Seth Hawkins has replaced Stew Thornley as columnist.
9. New Business
Rekela solicited opinions regarding sites of Regional meetings. People seem to like Community Methodist Church in Columbia Heights. Halsey Hall Room is nice, but parking is not available in immediate vicinity, which is a problem for people carrying breakfast rolls, presentation materials books, etc. The church is great as parking is right there. The church is also cheaper ($50) to rent. Jim Wyman indicated that he prefers the church, as he did not see any huge benefit of the more expensive Halsey Hall Room. We are paying extra mainly for nice color pictures of sports on the walls. The meal here was nice, but overall Wyman prefers the church and a bag lunch with convenient parking and lower cost.

Rekela solicited nominations for the four open Board positions.
Stew Thornley, Fred Buckland, Rich Arpi, and Lee Temanson were nominated.
Since the number of nominations equalled the number of open spots, the four nominees were approved by acclamation.

Jim Wyman wants to discuss opinions of the candidates for the National elections. We can do this after our speakers are done this afternoon.

Howard Luloff advised us that the Great American History Theater is presenting a play "Tailgating" from October 8 thru November 9 this fall, and suggested we go see it as a group. There are discounts for groups of twelve people or more.

Stew Thornley has organized a trip to Wisconsin on May 31 to see the Burleigh Grimes grave and museum. Contact Stew for details.
